26th ANNUAL ONE WORLD FILM FESTIVAL PRESENTS

Actions Speak Louder Than Words

Sunday, September 27, 2015 at Saint Paul University

Tuesday, September 8th, Ottawa: Want to make a difference? Take the next step toward action with a full day of FREE films, discussions, and interactive workshops with Inter Pares, the Canadian Institute for Conflict Resolution, and Oxfam Canada. "Actions Speak Louder Than Words" takes place on Sunday, September 27th, 2015 from 10am to 5pm at Saint Paul University, 223 Main Street, Ottawa, K1S 1C4.

10am | Inter Pares

Inter Pares will hold a screening of La fièvre verte (The Green Fever), a short film created by Inter Pares, the Université de Montreal's REDTAC research group and the West African peasant movement COPAGEN. It is based on a research project that documented the impacts of land grabs on the livelihoods and food security of people in West Africa. Inter Pares Africa Program Manager Eric Chaurette, along with some of the filmmakers, will lead a bilingual discussion following the screening.

12:30pm | The Canadian Institute for Conflict Resolution

The Canadian Institute for Conflict Resolution, whose mission is to empower individuals, communities and organizations to resolve conflicts peacefully, invites you to a two-hour interactive workshop on conflict resolution. Come learn about transformative approaches and tools to analyze and work through conflicts experienced within family, community and the workplace, and we will share success stories about challenging conflicts in Canada and abroad.

3pm | Oxfam Canada

Inside Syria, 12 million people are in need of aid. Almost 4 million more have fled the country and are now living as refugees. Oxfam Canada presents clips of interview footage from the field, sharing the voices of Syrians who are now in Lebanon and Jordan. Noor is a Syrian refugee, teaching hope to children in a refugee camp, and Haifa is intent on returning home someday. Join us for a workshop to further explore the situation in Syria following the screening.

Representatives from Inter Pares, the Canadian Institute for Conflict Resolution, and Oxfam Canada are available for interviews. Please contact OWFF Manager Jessica Ruano by email at media@oneworldarts.ca for more information.

About OWFF

The One World Film Festival is the flagship program of One World Arts, a Canadian charitable organization that has been raising awareness and fostering public engagement on global issues since 1972.

The OWFF is Ottawa's longest-running annual documentary film festival. Since 1989, the festival has been raising awareness on a diverse range of global issues through presentations of thought-provoking documentaries, panel discussions, Q&As with filmmakers, workshops, and information fairs with grassroots and non-governmental organizations, connecting audiences with opportunities to learn more about and take action on issues of local and global concern.

The 26th annual OWFF is funded, in part, by grants from the Ontario Arts Council and the City of Ottawa.
